

INFORMATION LITERACY STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

An information literate student can:

- Demonstrate basic knowledge of how information is produced, organized, and disseminated
- Select appropriate sources for a particular research task
- Understand how to search multiple information retrieval systems using keywords (and synonyms), subject terms, and phrases.
- Evaluate information based on the purpose of the information, accuracy, authority, authenticity, currency, appropriateness, and objectivity.
- Demonstrate basic knowledge of plagiarism, copyright, and documentation as applied to the research process.

Derived from: Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education,
Association of College and Research Libraries
IFLA Information Literacy Logo <http://www.infolitglobal.info/logo/>

SACRAMENTO
STATE